Immediately after founding of The Holland Society of New York in 1885 the members set about carrying into effect the purposes for which it was organized. The library, specifically authorized in the constitution, has grown over the intervening years until it now forms one of the most important collections of its kind in existence. Publications of the Society are a valuable part since they record its activities and contain considerable source information. This is the first index of the Society's publications.

In 1886 the initial publication of the Society contained an account of its first year's activities and dinner. Since then thirty-eight year books have been printed from 1886 through 1930-37. Each one gives the officers and committees, an account of the Society meetings and the addresses of speakers at the annual banquets. Church records, the constitution and by-laws and an account of pilgrimages taken by members of the Society were included from time to time.

The quarterly publication of the Society was started in October 1922, under the title "De Halve Maen" and it appeared as a four-page pamphlet on orange paper until 1943, when it was increased to eight pages on white paper within a cover bearing the familiar replica of Henry Hudson's ship. Besides recording the current activities of the Society, it contains special articles contributed by members.

The following "Collections of the Society" have been published: Hackensack Church Records, Vol. I, Part I, and Schraalenburgh Church Records, Vol. I, Part II, in 1891; Records of the Reformed Church of New Paltz, Vol. III in 1896; Records of the Reformed Dutch Church of Bergen, Vol. IV in 1915; Records of Domine Henricus Selyns of New York 1686-7, Vol. V, in 1916.

Pamphlets published have been: "Catalogue of the Works of Grotius and of the Books Relating to Him Presented to the Holland Society of New York by its President, Robert B. Roosevelt," 1890; "The Dutch of the Netherlands in the Making of America," by Dr. William Elliot Griffis, 1921; "Treatise as to the First Settlement of New York and Propositions for Tercentenary Celebrations in 1923, 1924 or 1926," 1922, and "New Netherland's Founding," by Dingman Versteeg in 1924.

In 1926 the Society sponsored the publication of a volume entitled "Dutch Houses in the Hudson Valley before 1776," by Helen Wilkinson Reynolds. A second book on "Pre-Revolutionary Dutch Houses and Families in Northern New Jersey and Southern New York" was prepared by Rosalie Fellows Bailey under Society sponsorship and published in 1936. Both contained many photographs and exhaustive details of the old Dutch Houses and Families in their respective sections and are now considered collectors' items.

I N D E X

Items appearing in the Yearbooks of The Holland Society of New York are referred to herein as "1907:159" of "22/23:78", the former being Page 159 of the 1907 Yearbook and the latter refers to Page 78 of the Yearbook for 1922/23.

Volumes published by the Society in its "Collections" series are indicated here simply by a Roman numeral, since only the volume titles are listed and each has its own separate index. This also applies to various other works published or sponsored by the Society, such as Miss Bailey's book on "Pre-Revolutionary Dutch Houses and Families".

Articles appearing in the Society's quarterly magazine "de Halve Maen" are indexed as "Ja42" which refers to the January 1942 issue, while "Jy57" indicates that the item sought will be found in the July 1957 number. Each of the issues of the present format generally follows a similar layout with Holland Society affairs in front, then activities of its members, articles of historical and current interest and lastly obituaries of Society members.

It will be noted that topics are usually grouped under various main and sub-headings, such as "Holland Society - Members" or "Branch Activities" and also "New Netherland" with cross references to "New Amsterdam" and "New York". Where it is felt that an item might be hard to locate, it may occasionally be indexed under several different main headings.
